COMPLAINT

Plaintiff MILLENNIUM TGA, INCORPORATED (“Millennium,” or the “Plaintiff”) appears before this Court to file this Complaint against Defendant Joel Leon (“Leon” or the “Defendant”), John Does # 1-5, whose true identities are unknown (the “Doe Defendants”) and alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is an action by Millennium, a Hawaii corporation, to recover damages arising from massive infringement of Millennium’s copyrights in its creative works by Leon, a dedicated serial pirate of its content. Millennium does business under the trade names “Grooby Productions,” “Black TGirls” and “Shemale Yum.”

2. For many years, Leon accessed Millennium’s online services using passwords that were hacked or stolen from other members; copied Millennium’s exclusive, copyrighted content; and unlawfully distributed it on his various web logs (“blogs”) and one-click hosting sites, promoting these uploads on his websites so that more people would download the stolen files – allowing Leon to monetize his unlawful scheme.

3. After unlawfully obtaining access to Plaintiff's online service, Leon downloaded and copied as many copyrighted works as possible. Leon would then upload photographs that belonged to the Plaintiff to his free website, providing links for visitors to download them from one-click hosting sites, obviating the need for internet surfers to subscribe to Plaintiff's online services to receive its exclusive content.

4. Defendants specifically uploaded Plaintiff's works to one-click hosting websites that allowed users to upload files to the website's servers without prior review or policing, so that others may download those files for free (and, for paying a premium price to the file-hosting service, may download them at enhanced speeds).

5. Such one-click hosting sites often have membership or affiliate programs that give benefits such as unlimited high-speed downloads – a service normally bearing a monthly fee – or straight cash, to members who upload files that are downloaded many times. Some of the sites that Leon and the Doe Defendants used, such as Megaupload.com and FileSonic.com, have since terminated their affiliate programs; Megaupload in particular has been shut down and many of its principals indicted for criminal activity related to the site's operation – including, at least in part, its operation of an affiliate program described above.¹

6. Leon's promotion of his stolen content, which he uploaded to file locker sites that rewarded Leon based on the number times his files were downloaded, was done not only to unlawfully distribute Millennium's content, but to enrich Leon and his affiliates as well.

7. Defendant Leon specifically infringed on the following copyrighted works at various points up until the summer of 2011, the copyright registration certificates for which are attached as follows:

- a. Group Registration Photos, Brooke Zanell 3 Shemale Yum, published June 18, 2010; 109 photos, Exhibit A;
- b. Group Registration Photos, Chrissy 3 Shemale Yum, published October 10, 2008; 116 photos, Exhibit B;
- c. Group Registration Photos, Ciara Dash 2 Black TGirls, published October 5, 2010; 103 photos, Exhibit C;
- d. Group Registration Photos, Jordan Dahl 1 Shemale Yum, published December 18, 2009; 87 photos, Exhibit D;
- e. Group Registration Photos, Kamely Girl of the Month Shemale Yum, published August 12, 2007; 81 photos, Exhibit E;

- h. Group Registration Photos, Nelly 4 Shemale Yum, published October 30, 2009; 115 photos, Exhibit H;
- i. Group Registration Photos, Rachel 1 Shemale Yum, published April 23, 2010; 96 photos, Exhibit I;
- j. Group Registration Photos, Samantha H. 1 Shemale Yum, published May 15, 2009; 90 photos, Exhibit J;

- k. Audiovisual work Jordan Dahl 1, Shemale Yum, December 18, 2009, Exhibit K;
- l. Audiovisual work Kamora 9, Black TGirls, December 14, 2010, Exhibit L;
- m. Audiovisual work Melania 1, Shemale Yum, October 22, 2010, Exhibit M;
- n. Audiovisual work Anzell, Shemale Yum, May 14, 2010, Exhibit N;
- o. Audiovisual work Amanda1, Shemale Yum, January 7, 2011, Exhibit O;
- p. Audiovisual work Brooke Zanell 3, Shemale Yum, June 18, 2010, Exhibit P;
- q. Audiovisual work Chrissy 3, Shemale Yum, October 10, 2008, Exhibit Q; and
- r. Audiovisual work Ciara Dash 2, BlackTGirls, October 5, 2010, Exhibit R.

8. Defendants John Doe 1-5 are presently unknown associates of Leon, who assisted in various aspects of this scheme. The Doe Defendants' conduct included including obtaining passwords, unlawfully copying and distributing Millennium's copyrighted works, and providing other material aid to Leon in effecting this scheme.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This is a civil action for injunctive and legal relief for the following harms:

- a. copyright infringement, 17 U.S.C. §501 et seq.;
- b. unauthorized use of a computer network (colloquially, "hacking"), 18 U.S.C. § 1030(g); and
- c. civil conspiracy.

10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff Millennium's claims for copyright infringement, trademark infringement and related claims; 17 U.S.C. §101, et. seq.; 18 U.S.C. § 1030(g); and 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1338.

11. The Court has personal jurisdiction over each of the Defendants on account of using Softlayer, Incorporated, located within this District, to host the infringing blog.

12. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1391(b), (c) and (d), and 28 U.S.C. §1400(a).

PARTIES

13. Plaintiff Millennium is a Hawaii corporation, doing business as Grooby Productions, Black TGirls and Shemale Yum, with its principal place of business in California. Plaintiff produces, markets, and distributes adult entertainment visual and audiovisual works specializing in transsexual content, including, inter alia, Internet website content, videos, DVDs, and photographs.

14. Leon is a resident of the state of New York. Leon has been observed hacking and stealing passwords for Plaintiff's services over several years, which he then uploaded to both his blog and numerous one-click hosting sites so that he could distribute Millennium's works – and profit from his unlawful acts.

15. The true names and identities of John Does # 1-5, and the capacities in which they were associates of Defendant Leon are unknown. Plaintiff believes and avers that Defendant Leon did not act alone, and that these unknown individuals committed, or assisted in committing, the unauthorized access of Millennium's online services, and the unauthorized copying and distribution of Millennium's copyrighted content.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

16. Leon is no stranger to Millennium. For several years, Leon has made a hobby – and then a living – off of stealing and redistributing Millennium's copyrighted works.

17. Leon's plan was simple, and enabled by the realities of the internet: Leon would participate in message boards and other groups where passwords for membership-based websites including Millennium's were exchanged among members so that they could unlawfully access content contained within the members-only area.

18. By using these unlawfully obtained passwords, users such as Leon were able to access, download and copy Millennium's content without paying for it.

19. After accessing Millennium's secure members-only webpages with stolen login information, Leon and his associates would then download Millennium's content onto their computers and other storage devices.

20. The material Leon downloaded from Millennium's secure members-only webpages included full-length audiovisual works, individual photographs, and entire sets of photographs that Millennium created for the benefit and enjoyment of its paying members.

21. Leon and others would then upload this unlawfully stolen content to other internet-based sources.

22. First, Leon and others would upload Millennium's photo sets and full-length videos to one-click hosting sites, such as FileSonic.com and Megaupload.com.

23. One-click hosting sites such as FileSonic and Megaupload offered free storage for large files – often up to 500 megabytes.

24. Such websites are (or were) often used for the widespread unauthorized sharing of copyrighted materials, including television shows, movies, albums, books and images.

25. These websites also offer monetary compensation for users who upload files that are widely downloaded, rewarding those who add highly desirable files with thousands of dollars after other visitors to the one-click hosting sites have downloaded them a sufficient number of times.

26. By uploading these files, Leon not only copied and distributed Millennium's visual and audiovisual works without authorization – but profited from doing so as well.

27. To ensure that Leon's uploaded files were widely distributed, he and his associates posted direct links to the webpages where users could download Millennium's works that Leon uploaded to the one-click hosting sites to a web log, or “blog,” that Leon maintained at URLs including, but not limited to, <www.soloshemales.co.cc> and <www.soloshemales.co>.

28. This Blog did not have a registered agent for the notification of copyright infringements as required by the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 512, and therefore is ineligible for any safe harbors against liability that law provides.²

29. At the Blog, visitors were presented with links to one-click hosting sites that allowed them to download the files Leon had unlawfully uploaded.

30. On information and belief, Blog visitors followed the links on the Blog to the one-click hosting sites and downloaded Millennium’s stolen, copyrighted content, which Leon had posted there.

31. In order to ensure the greatest number of people possible downloaded the files Leon uploaded to the one-click hosting sites, accompanied his links to the hosting sites with full images taken from the visual or audiovisual works hosted there.

COUNTS I-XVIII – COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT UNDER 17 U.S.C. § 501
(Against All Defendants)

32. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges paragraphs 1-31 as if set forth herein.

33. Millennium is the exclusive owner of all the rights defined in 17 U.S.C. § 106 for the works covered by the copyright applications attached hereto as Exhibits A-R.

34. Defendant Leon and the Doe Defendants created copies of each and every one of the works identified by the copyright applications attached hereto as Exhibits A-R by uploading the files to one-click hosting sites such as, but not limited to, FileSonic.

² The Defendants’ “soloshemales” blogs are nowhere to be found in the Copyright Office’s comprehensive registry of sites that have appointed a registered agent in order to comply with 17 U.S.C. § 512(c). See http://www.copyright.gov/onlinesp/list/s_agents.html.

35. By uploading Millennium's works to those sites, where third parties could download them for their own use, Leon and the Doe Defendants distributed Millennium's works without Plaintiff's authorization.

36. Leon and the Doe Defendants further distributed Millennium's works by posting and heavily promoting links to the one-click hosting sites where they had uploaded them.

37. The Defendants' unauthorized copying and distribution of the works violated Millennium's exclusive rights under 17 U.S.C. § 106.

COUNTS XIX-XXVII – VICARIOUS COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
UNDER 17 U.S.C. § 501
(Against All Defendants)

38. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges paragraphs 1-31 as if set forth herein.

39. The Defendants' unauthorized copying and distribution of the works violated Millennium's exclusive rights under 17 U.S.C. § 106.

40. After defendants uploaded the works protected by the copyright registration certificates attached hereto in Exhibits A-R to one-click hosting sites, they retained the right and ability to control the files.

41. The Defendants' right to control the infringing material extended up to and including the right and ability to disable third parties' access to the files, such as removing the infringing material from the one-click hosting sites.

42. Defendants received a financial benefit from their infringement of Millennium's works, namely through the financial and in-kind rewards provided through the affiliate programs offered by MegaUpload, FileSonic and other services.

COUNT XXVIII – FRAUD AND RELATED ACTIVITY IN CONNECTION
WITH COMPUTERS UNDER 18 U.S.C. § 1030(g)
(Against All Defendants)

43. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges paragraphs 1-31 as if set forth herein.

44. Leon and the Doe Defendants used unlawfully obtained passwords to access the password-protected members-only portion of Millennium's interactive online computer service.

45. At no time did Leon nor the other Doe Defendants have legal permissions nor lawful access to this members-only area, and circumvented its password protection by improperly using passwords that Millennium had assigned to other users.

46. In taking these actions, Leon and the Doe Defendants accessed Millennium's computers and computer services without authorization to do so.

47. As visitors of Millennium's websites who did not have memberships or passwords for accessing members-only areas, Leon and the Doe Defendants exceeded their authorized access of Millennium's computer services by using stolen passwords to access Millennium's members-only website and computer services.

48. The actions of Leon and the Doe Defendants as a result of their unauthorized access of Millennium's services have cost Plaintiff more than $5,000.00 in economic damages.

COUNT XXIX– CIVIL CONSPIRACY
(Against All Defendants)

49. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges paragraphs 1-31 as if set forth herein.

50. Defendant Leon and the Doe Defendants worked in concert to unlawfully copy and distribute Plaintiff Millennium's visual and audiovisual works.

51. All of the Defendants worked in concert to obtain and share user passwords needed for their unauthorized access of Millennium's members-only online service.

52. All of the Defendants acted in concert to copy and download visual and audiovisual works from Millennium's password-protected members-only online service, which they then cooperated to copy and upload to one-click hosting sites, where they were distributed freely to third parties.

53. Leon and the Doe Defendants promoted this infringement by supplying hyperlinks on their Blog that led directly to the user download page for those files found on one-click hosting sites.

54. All of the Defendants participated in this common scheme of unlawful computer system access and copyright infringement for their financial benefit; upon information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that the Defendants engaged in this conspiracy to reap the monetary compensation provided by the one-click hosting sites as a reward for the files they uploaded – Millennium’s works – being widely downloaded.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Millennium respectfully requests that the Court hereby:

(1) Enter a judgment declaring that Defendants, jointly and severally, with a common plan, purpose or scheme, willfully infringed Plaintiff’s rights in federally registered copyrights pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §501 through direct, contributory, vicarious, and inducing acts;

(2) Enter a judgment finding the Defendants were involved in a civil conspiracy to commit the aforementioned wrongful acts and are therefore all jointly and severally liable for all of the co-conspirators’ acts;

(3) Enter a judgment against Defendants for Millennium’s full actual damages arising from Defendants’ copyright infringement under 17 U.S.C. § 501;

(4) Enter a judgment against Defendants for Millennium’s full economic damages arising from the Defendants’ violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1030;

(5) Enter an order directing the Defendants, jointly and severally, pay Plaintiff Millennium both the costs of action and the reasonable attorney's fees incurred by it in prosecuting this action pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §505.

(6) Enter a judgment enjoining the Defendants from future copyright infringement; and,

(7) Grant to Millennium whatever and further relief, either in law or in equity, to which this Court deems it fit to receive.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all claims so triable.
